A MESSAGE FROM THE REVD. MARTIN JACQUES

Dear Friends,

"Chestnuts roasting on an open fire, jack frost nipping at your toes" evokes an image, in my mind at least, of a lovely, thatched cottage surrounded by deep snow, and through the window, safe inside, huddled beside a roaring fire, a beautifully decorated Christmas tree in the corner of the room and presents piled up underneath it. Add a robin, some holly, perhaps some children building a snow man in hats and scarves, and you pretty much have the entire romantic vision of Christmas.

Romantic it may be, but somewhere deep inside we all crave the peace and harmony, sense of expectation and comfort that such a scene evokes.

It may jar terribly with our current reality of money and relationship troubles, with possible illness and even perhaps a sense of crisis and foreboding, but nevertheless that vision of contentment, warmth and happiness is one that we aspire to and try to re-create in our often inadequate and ham-fisted ways.

That vision of hope, contrasting with an often-grim reality, is what the celebration of Christmas has been giving mankind for 2022 years. That is the reason it endures in our imaginations, and no amount of commercialisation can extinguish it.

Hope for a better future, the faith and trust that darkness can never have the final word, is what keeps Christians going and it is a message of hope for mankind that colours our entire attitude to life that extends far beyond Christmas day itself.

One of the names given to Jesus in Matthew's gospel is "Emmanuel" which means "God is with us". No matter what is happening in your life, aim to nurture a relationship with the God who was born into this world just like every one of us, who shared in the trials and tribulations, frustrations and sufferings of life – just like us, and rose above them and triumphed in the end. If you can do that, you really do have a friend in Jesus and a hope in your heart that cannot be extinguished. That romantic vision of Christmas beloved of the Christmas card makers is simply reflecting the hope that is the content of the Christmas story.

Have a happy Christmas and a blessed New Year,

Martin

A Little Something to Reflect on

May the God of the stable help us to see the wonder of Christmas:
the wonder of children who can hardly wait;
the wonder of Mary and Joseph who feel the power of God's love;
the wonder of the shepherds who hear the Good News;
the wonder of the Wise Ones who kneel and offer their gifts;
the wonder of the ages that God would come in such a simple birth.

Shoeboxes for Ukraine and Moldova

16 brightly wrapped boxes have been prepared and filled by people living in the RMC area, to bring some Christmas joy to families living in these difficult times. These boxes were taken to the collection warehouse of CR2EE, Christian Response to Eastern Europe, to be loaded onto a lorry for delivery in time for Christmas. They contained toys, warm clothing knitted by the Square Circle knitting group in East Budleigh, toiletries, sweets and other welcome gifts.

Report from Exmouth Food Bank

In December we will be giving out festive hampers in addition to the standard food parcels. Each hamper will consist of nine key items: a tin of ham, biscuits for cheese, fruit juice, savoury snacks, a Christmas cake, mince pies, a Christmas pudding, a variety pack of sweet biscuits and a box of chocolates. Parcels will be collated during the week beginning Monday 5 December and will be distributed the week beginning Monday 12 December.

We will provide parcels for our clients and for some of the agencies we work closely with namely Open Door, Home Start and local churches. We now have emergency out of hours food parcels located in 12 churches and 4 schools in and around Exmouth as well as in local agencies including Open Door, Citizens Advice, Littleham Community Fridge, Seachange and the Wesley Café in Budleigh. Each parcel contains a supply of non-perishable foods that will 'tide a person over' until the food bank is next open.

50:50 Auction in November

A very, very special thanks to everyone involved, especially the team making it happen but also the contributors and of course the buyers. I found out that putting on a professional auction involves considerably more work and commitment than I realised, and it is unlikely that we will be able to do it again. However we managed it and the result was that we were able to contribute a much needed sum in the region of £3,000 to the car park fund. We can't be precise yet as we sent several items over to Piers Motley Auctions in Exmouth. We know they did very well but are waiting for the final cheque to come through. Also quite a few of the "un-sold" items went to the Winter Fayre the following Saturday and helped to boost that.

So again, thanks to all involved.....

Sock Sundays December 4th and 11th

Please bring gifts of new or nearly new socks, hats, scarves and gloves to church for distribution by St. Petrock's to homeless people in and around Exeter. A happy idea is to tuck chocolates into your presents.

Open the Book

The picture is taken from 'Samuel hears a voice' and shows Eli – asleep! – and the narrator. It was a special story because in all four presentations the part of Samuel was played by a child, each one did brilliantly even though they hadn't rehearsed with us.

Our final presentation this term is on 1st December when we shall tell the Christmas story and think about all the hope that is contained in it, a fitting end to the year. I am really enjoying working with both Open the Book teams and of course with the children; they are always so willing to take part and the staff so welcoming. Please pray for all of us and especially that God's word would take root in the young lives.

The case of the Missing Box: Doris Godfrey kindly brought brownies to the Autumn Fair in an oblong plastic box. It has vanished! If you know its whereabouts, please could you return it to the Peter Hall kitchen or to Fran. Doris will put her name on similar boxes in future!
